HOT SCIENCE GLOBAL CITIZENS SYMPOSIUM PROGRAM, MAY 5-6 2011

Time	Session title	Event
8.30		Registration open
9.00	Introduction	Welcome to country TBA Welcome Professor Tony Bennett, Centre for Cultural Research, University of Western Sydney Project introduction Dr Fiona Cameron, Centre for Cultural Research, University of Western Sydney
9.30 Chair: Dr Fiona Cameron, Centre for Cultural Research	Keynote address	Professor Mike Hulme, University of East Anglia, UK "Why we disagree about climate change" A problem to be solved or a creative opportunity?
10.30	Morning tea br	eak
11.00 Chair: Professor Jann Conroy, Centre for Plants and Environment University of Western Sydney	New interventions and institutional forms in the future present: the potential agency of museums and science centres	Strand 1 presentations Associate Professor Brett Neilson, Centre for Cultural Research, University of Western Sydney, New institutional forms Scott East, Centre for Cultural Research, University of Western Sydney, Affect as a modality for change Dr Fiona Cameron, Intervening in climate change – potential roles and agencies
12.15 Chair: Matthew Connell, Powerhouse Museum	Communicating climate change and the media – new models and modalities	Strand 2 and 3 presentations Professor David Karoly, Earth Sciences, University of Melbourne, What does "public opinion" really say about climate change? Professor Bob Hodge, Centre for Cultural Research TBA Dr Juan Salazar, Centre for Cultural Research, University of Western Sydney, Museums as Media
1.30	Lunch
2.30 Chair: TBA	Institutional cultures and institutional change: a response to the research	Response to keynote & presentations Dr Emlyn Koster, Liberty Science Center Elaine Gurian, International Museum Consultant
4.00	Afternoon tea bro	eak
4.30 Chair: Dr Fiona Cameron Centre for Cultural Research	Leading partner institutions" – CEO responses to the Hot Science research	CEO Roundtable Frank Howarth, Director, Australian Museum Professor Graham Durant, Director, Questacon Dr Dawn Casey, Director, Powerhouse Museum
5.30 for 6pm Chair: Professor David Karoly University of Melbourne 7:30	Why we disagree about climate change – opening up new spaces for innovation, change and diversity  Close	Public lecture Professor Mike Hulme, University of East Anglia, UK "Re-Structuring Climate Policy for a Partisan Era"

HOT SCIENCE GLOBAL CITIZENS SYMPOSIUM PROGRAM, MAY 5-6 2011

Frank Howarth Director, Australian Museum  Australian Museum  Director, Australian Museum  Director, Australian Museum  Australian Museum  Director, Australian Museum  Australian  Director, Australian Museum  Tara Morelos, d/lux/MediaArts, Seb Chan, Powerhouse Museum, ARG/social media/lphone apps  Director  Dr Lynda Kelly, Australian Museum  Australian Museum  Australian Museum  Director  Dr Lynda Kelly, Australian Museum  Australian Museum  Australian Museum  Afternoon tea break  Calabar  Afternoon tea break  Afternoon tea break  Report back from unconference/plenary discussion  Report back from unconference/plenary discussion  Science Center, Creative Mitigation Declan Kuch, Australian Youth Climate Coalition, How campaigning at the UN Climate Talks is like being a kid in museum  Tara Morelos, d/lux/MediaArts, Seb Chan, Powerhouse Museum, ARG/social media/lphone apps  Participants have opportunity to sign up to present – an idea, a program, a thought around climate change programming. Discussion roundtables led by provocateurs each around number of themes including: institutions & social media, grassroots mobilisation & community networks; science communication; alternative reality gaming; sustainable institutions plus others that emerge from the presentation of t	Time	Session title	Event
Chair: Brenton Honeyman Questacon  Morning tea break  Creative agency and programming in museums and science centres  Dreshrath Howarth Director, Australian Museum  Unconference (includes working lunch pr Lynda Kelly, Australian Museum Australian Museum  12.00  Unconference (includes working lunch from 1pm)  Australian Museum  Afternoon tea break  Afternoon tea break  Dreshrations from provocateurs Giles Lane, Proboscis, London, UK and Wayne LaBar Libe Science Center, Creative Mitigation Declan Kuch, Australian Youth Climate Coalition, How campaigning at the UN Climate Talks is like being a kid in museum Tara Morelos, d/lux/MediaArts, Seb Chan, Powerhouse Museum, ARG/social media/lphone apps  Participants have opportunity to sign up to present – an idea, a program, a thought around climate change programming. Discussion roundtables led by provocateurs each around number of themes including: institutions & social media, grassroots mobilisation & community networks; science communication; alternative reality gaming; sustainable institutions plus others that emerge from the presentation in the presentation of the presentation of the present that emerge from the presentation of the presentat	8.30		Registration open
Creative agency and programming in museums and science centres  Frank Howarth Director, Australian Museum  12.00 Organiser: Dr Lynda Kelly, Australian Museum  Australian Museum  To Lynda Kelly, Australian Museum  Australian Museum  Australian Museum  To Lynda Kelly, Australian Museum  Australian Museum  Australian Museum  Australian Museum  Afternoon tea break  2.45 Facilitator: Wayne LaBar Libe Science Center, Creative Mitigation Declan Kuch, Australian Youth Climate Coalition, How campaigning at the UN Climate Talks is like being a kid in museum Tara Morelos, d/lux/MediaArts, Seb Chan, Powerhouse Museum, ARG/social media/lphone apps  Participants have opportunity to sign up to present – an idea, a program, a thought around climate change programming. Discussion roundtables led by provocateurs each around number of themes including: institutions & social media/grassroots mobilisation & community networks; science communication; alternative reality gaming; sustainable institutions plus others that emerge from the presentation of the programming going forward from symposium  Afternoon tea break  Report back from unconference/plenary discussion	Chair: Brenton Honeyman		Dr Saffron O'Neill, University of Melbourne Professor Mike Hulme, University of East Anglia
Creative agency and programming in museums and science centres  Frank Howarth Director, Australian Museum  12.00 Organiser: Dr Lynda Kelly, Australian Museum  Australian Museum  To Lynda Kelly, Australian Museum  Australian Museum  Australian Museum  To Lynda Kelly, Australian Museum  Australian Museum  Australian Museum  Australian Museum  Afternoon tea break  2.45 Facilitator: Wayne LaBar Libe Science Center, Creative Mitigation Declan Kuch, Australian Youth Climate Coalition, How campaigning at the UN Climate Talks is like being a kid in museum Tara Morelos, d/lux/MediaArts, Seb Chan, Powerhouse Museum, ARG/social media/lphone apps  Participants have opportunity to sign up to present – an idea, a program, a thought around climate change programming. Discussion roundtables led by provocateurs each around number of themes including: institutions & social media/grassroots mobilisation & community networks; science communication; alternative reality gaming; sustainable institutions plus others that emerge from the presentation of the programming going forward from symposium  Afternoon tea break  Report back from unconference/plenary discussion	10.00	Morning tea b	 reak
Chair: Frank Howarth Director, Australian Museum  12.00 Organiser: Dr Lynda Kelly, Australian Museum  12.01  Australian Museum  12.02  12.03  Afternoon tea break  2.45 Facilitator: Wayne LaBar  13.45  Drogramming in museums and science centres  Drogramming in museums and science centres  Giles Lane, Proboscis, London, UK and Wayne LaBar Libe Science Center, Creative Mitigation Declan Kuch, Australian Youth Climate Coalition, How campaigning at the UN Climate Talks is like being a kid in museum Tara Morelos, d/lux/MediaArts, Seb Chan, Powerhouse Museum, ARG/social media/lphone apps  Participants have opportunity to sign up to present – an idea, a program, a thought around climate change programming. Discussion roundtables led by provocateurs each around number of themes including: institutions & social media, grassroots mobilisation & community networks; science communication; alternative reality gaming; sustainable institutions plus others that emerge from the presentation institutions plus others that emerge from the presentation of the programming going forward from symposium  2.30  Afternoon tea break  "Ideas generation" plenary: creative programming going forward from symposium  Afternoon tea break  Report back from unconference/plenary discussion		=
Organiser: Dr Lynda Kelly, Australian Museum  Calculates working lunch from 1pm)  Discussion roundtables led by provocateurs each around number of themes including: institutions & social media; grassroots mobilisation & community networks; science communication; alternative reality gaming; sustainable institutions plus others that emerge from the presentation and the programming going forward from symposium  Calculates working lunch from 1pm)  Discussion roundtables led by provocateurs each around number of themes including: institutions & social media; grassroots mobilisation & community networks; science communication; alternative reality gaming; sustainable institutions plus others that emerge from the presentation and the presentation and the presentation and the presentation are programming going forward from symposium  Afternoon tea break  Report back from unconference/plenary discussion symposium  Report back from unconference/plenary discussion symposium	Chair: Frank Howarth Director, Australian	programming in museums	Giles Lane, Proboscis, London, UK and Wayne LaBar Liberty Science Center, Creative Mitigation Declan Kuch, Australian Youth Climate Coalition, How campaigning at the UN Climate Talks is like being a kid in a museum Tara Morelos, d/lux/MediaArts, Seb Chan, Powerhouse
2.45 Facilitator: Wayne LaBar  "Ideas generation" plenary: creative programming going forward from symposium  Report back from unconference/plenary discussion	Organiser: Dr Lynda Kelly,	(includes working lunch	programming. Discussion roundtables led by provocateurs each around a number of themes including: institutions & social media; grassroots mobilisation & community networks; science
Facilitator: Wayne LaBar going forward from symposium  3.45	2.30 Afternoon tea break
	Facilitator: Wayne	creative programming going forward from	Report back from unconference/plenary discussion
	3.45		ı
Dr Fiona Cameron Wrap up and thanks	Dr Fiona Cameron	Wrap up and thanks			