Featuring on the State Library Story Wall after dark every night from 24 March 2017

- UNSETTLED: Beltana No Western
- UNSETTLED: Nepabunna Mission 1937

These two works express the core concepts of the UNSETTLED exhibition, and draw on the State Library collections and the rarely seen historic Mountford Sheard Collection.

Exhibition tours and talks

- Sunday 26 March, 2pm – 3pm
- Monday 27 March, 6pm – 7pm

Free, bookings essential

Join curators Grayson Cooke and Dea Morgain, and Adnyamathanha project participant Pauline McKenzie, to hear the stories captured in the exhibition and the processes involved in creating the multi-media display.

The exhibition will also be included in the daily tours by the State Library's Volunteer Guides.
