

HAWKE EU CENTRE EUROPEAN SOCIAL THEORY INTENSIVE MASTERCLASSES

MOBILITY, IDENTITY AND GLOBALIZATION

30 – 31 August 2017, Adelaide

The Hawke EU Centre for Mobilities, Migrations and Cultural Transformations at the University of South Australia in Adelaide is hosting a two-day intensive series of masterclasses on European Social Theory, entitled Mobility, Identity and Globalization.

The social theory intensive will delve deep into mobilities, identity and globalization for enacting social change and will be taught by world leading social theorists.

Masterclasses will be delivered by:

PROFESSOR SVEN KESSELING

Nürtingen-Geislingen University, Germany

PROFESSOR MALENE FREUDENDAL-PEDERSEN

Roskilde University, Denmark

PROFESSOR ANTHONY ELLIOTT

University of South Australia, Australia

PROFESSOR ROBERT J. HOLTON

Trinity College Dublin, Ireland

This intensive program is suitable for postgraduate students and early career researchers looking to further their knowledge in European Social Theory.*

For more information, visit unisa.edu.au/europeansocialtheory

*Conditions apply.

SCHOLARSHIPS

A limited number of scholarships are available to eligible domestic students across Australia. Scholarship includes return airfare from any capital city and two nights accommodation.

Conditions

1. Scholarships are available to domestic students currently undertaking an award program at an Australian Tertiary Institution.
2. A limited number of scholarships will be awarded at the discretion of the selection committee on the basis of merit.
3. To apply, please provide evidence of your enrolment at an Australian tertiary institution, a one page summary of why you wish to attend and email to hawkeEUcentre@unisa.edu.au by Friday 30 June 2017.