

Introducing

33 1/3 OCEANIA

The latest from the 33 1/3 Global series, 33 1/3 Oceania offers exciting accounts of albums that illustrate the wide range of music made in the Oceania region. It spans a range of artists and genres from Australian Indigenous artists to Māori and Pasifika artists, from Aotearoa/New Zealand noise music to Australian rock, and including music from Papua and other Pacific islands.

John Farnham's
Whispering Jack
Graeme Turner

An exploration of the history and cultural significance of the top-selling album by an Australian artist in Australia, often referred to as the country's unofficial national anthem.
